The attention of all Superintendents and clerks is drawn to the orders contained in the circular dated 10th July 1937 (K.750/37 dated 9th July, 1937) and paragraph 6 of Office Order No.23 of 1938m prohibiting working in Office on holidays. Flagrant transgression of these orders has recently come to the notice of the Secretary. All clerks and heads of sections are warned that anyone found working in the Office on any holiday without obtaining the previous permission of a Secretary will render himself liable to punishment for disobedience of orders. Such of the clerks and superintendents as have obtained previous permission of the Secretary to work in Office on any holiday should intimate to the First Assistant by 4 P.M. on the working day previous t the holiday, the fact of ~~his~~ having obtained such per mission. In future, the senior turn clerk, deputed to attend Office on a holiday should submit to the First Assistant a list of Superintendents and Clerks whom he found to be working in Office during the holiday. If none was so found a 'NIL' list should be submitted. This list should reach the First Assistant on the first workin day after the holiday. The First Assistant will submit the list to the Secretary with his remarks.
